CELEBRATION OF NATIONAL MINORITY DAY WITH BENAZIR BHUTTO FOUNDATION AT SZABIST UNIVERSITY

Weaving People to Grow Foundation was invited by Shaheed Bhutto Foundation to celebrate the National Minority Day on August 11, 2023 at Szabist University, Islamabad. We are thankful to Mr. Asif Khan the Chief Executive Officer of Shaheed Bhutto Foundation for extending us an esteemed invitation to share our thoughts and recommendation on this day.

WPTG Foundation gave the following recommendations:

- Fair statistics of population census should be shared and religious minorities should be provided due representation in the political and governance institutions of Pakistan.
- Educational curriculum of schools, colleges and universities should not have hate speech against other religions.
- Forced marriages and conversion of minority women should be stopped.
- The religious heritage of the religious minorities should be maintained and protected by the government.
- Along side selection on merit the religious minorities should be given 5% quota in educational institution and 5% quota of jobs should be filled with minority personnel.

AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION

Weaving People to Grow Foundation was invited by American Embassy Islamabad to celebrate its 247 years of Independence. The celebration was held at the Embassy of the United States of American. It was a good opportunity to meet and network with professionals from national and international government officials, civil society representatives, religious leaders, academicians, private corporate organizations and many professionals from hospitality sector.

Weaving People to Grow Foundation is highly thankful to Ambassador Donald Blome for inviting us to this ceremony.

CELEBRATION OF PAKISTAN INDEPENDENCE DAY

Weaving People to Grow Foundation celebrated Pakistan Independence Day on August 14, 2023 at WPTGF office at Lalkurti. We were honored to host the speakers from Alkhidmat Foundation, Oxfam GB and United Nations and youth from different universities, they talked about country's most pressing need is its economic development and youth can play an integral role in pulling the country out of this crisis.

They appreciated WPTGF Youth Network and encouraged youth to never stop believing on their abilities to achieve their goals.

The children of WPTGF Non-Formal Education Centre sang national songs and a spirit of patriotism was strengthened in children and youth. WPTG Foundation also emphasized youth on loving the country and putting their best to build up the country. A message of unity and peace promotion in the country was given because only unity can help us to evolve as a developed nation in the world.

WPTG FOUNDATION'S VOLUNTEERS PROGRAM

Jalisha Naseem is a Program and Media Volunteer of WPTG Foundation. She is working on the Non-Formal Education Centre project and ensures visibility of the project on Social Media of the organization. Currently, Jalisha is completing her degree of BS Design from Riphah International University. She joined WPTG Foundation as a volunteer in May 2023, this her first experience to work as a professional with a Civil Society Organization. She says, "Everyone has specific goals in their lives and my interest has developed in artistic life. So, in simple words I want to become a designer and further I want to do specialization in textile designing. I had a great interest in painting and in digital painting."

WPTG Foundation is helping Jalisha to explore where she want to reach in her professional life, we are also providing her an opportunity to practice her educational knowledge in WPTG Foundation's endeavors.

Aaron Rowan Bob is working as Program and Media Volunteer at WPTG Foundation. He is a student of A2 (grade 12) and studying the subjects of business, economics and psychology from St. Mary's Academy Lalazar. Aaron also moderates WPTGF events occasionally. He loves to help humanities with a dream to become an entrepreneur. He is still exploring his final goal where he wants to reach in the field business.

He is improving his confidence and skills with the power of Volunteerism at the age of 17. We are thankful for his generous contribution to WPTG Foundation.

Ms. Razia Naseem is working as a volunteer teacher for WPTG Foundation's Non-Formal Education Centre. We are highly thankful for her volunteer services for the marginalized Out of School Children studying at the centre. She is playing an integral role in changing the lives of the children positively who have never gone to schools. The children are very happy with Ms. Razia. She loves the children and always help them to learn and focus on their studies.

APPEAL FOR DONATIONS AND FUNDS!

WPTG Foundation Fundraising Campaign for 10 Vulnerable Students

Help them to Continue their Education

WPTG Foundation has been supporting four youth and children in the continuation of their studies since December 2022. Currently, we have identified six more financially poor students studying in schools, colleges and universities. The students are passionate to continue their education but due to extreme poverty, their families are unable to pay their fees. The three students are from single-parent homes, their mothers or fathers have died while the other 2 families are going through unemployment. We have developed their detailed case studies and will share them with interested persons to support the students. The funder will be provided with transparent utilization of their donations.
